Build online career experience for tomorrow’s job market

- Start your program online and transfer to campus later at any time. Once on campus, you will continue your degree with some familiar faces. Your advisors, professors and instructors you had online will be there to meet you in person.
- Spend at least three terms on campus to qualify for OPT opportunities to work in the US for up to three years after graduation.
- While studying online, you’ll develop your software and digital skills for working online and with global offices.

Are you looking to move up in your career?

- Min-Jun* is a 27-year-old professional in Seoul, Korea working as an accountant for a major bank. She wants to move up in her career and needs to get a master’s degree to get the promotion she wants. At the same time, she doesn’t want to be unemployed while earning her graduate degree. An online degree lets her advance her career and degree without having to quit her job. With with OSU’s online degree programs, Min-Jun can earn her degree faster, keep gaining professional experience and ultimately advance ahead of her peers to achieve her dream job.

- Mukun* is a 21-year-old student from Bangalore, India in his final year of his bachelor’s degree program. He wants to study in the US to get his master’s degree, but he’s concerned about the cost of his program and cost of living. By starting or completing his master’s degree online with OSU Ecampus, he can make his entire program more affordable.

Graduate just like on-campus students

- OSU Ecampus classes are developed by the same professors and instructors as the on-campus classes.
- You will earn the same diploma and transcript as on-campus students.
- Student services provide online student success counseling, online tutoring, access to academic support resources, career services and more.

Do you want to start or continue your studies at a lower cost?

- Mukun* is a 21-year-old student from Bangalore, India in his final year of his bachelor’s degree program.
